

CATALOG OF THE
SEMANTOGRAPHY SERIES
ISSUES NO. 101 - 200

For the Issues No. 1 - 100 see the foregoing Catalog

At the time of the compilation of this second catalog (September 1956) only 63 new issues were printed. The other issues from No. 163 to 200 are in preparation for printing. They are listed here, but no information about the extent of pages, and cost can yet be given. As soon as all issues No. 100 - 200 are printed this Catalog will be replaced by one giving full information.

The first issues of this second hundred contain the first writings on Semantography, covering the period from 1942 to 1946. The other issues have been arranged for printing, when the author found the time to put the special material in order. Consequently, earlier issues may cover a later work and vice versa. The reader is asked kindly to understand the difficulties which beset the author, and kindly to excuse the shortcomings of all these endeavours. The only financial help received came from those librarians and private persons who subscribed to the Series in advance, or ordered Special Selections. More such subscriptions will help to reduce the cost considerably. The series is offered below cost.

HOW TO ORDER

Libraries and private persons may order directly from the SEMANTOGRAPHY PUBLISHING CO. (address see below) or through their Bookseller. Private persons are requested to send in a cheque or money order of their country, equivalent to the price in Dollar or Pound Sterling as quoted in this catalog.

The prices of single issues of the Semantography Series are quoted in the special catalog in Dollar cents only. In order to get the equivalent in Sterling pence please multiply cents by 0.86. This conforms with the official rate (Sept. 1956). Thus 10 cents are equivalent to 8.6 pence, added-up to the nearest penny which is 9 pence. If the added-up amount of all ordered issues exceeds $ 2.50 a 20 % reduction can be made.

All prices include postage, but not custom expenses (if any). If prices have risen, due to increased cost, this information will be supplied before delivery is made. Surface mail parcels take at least 6 weeks from Australia. Efforts are under way to establish depots in the United States and Great Britain in order to speed up deliveries. Meanwhile kindly excuse the unavoidable delay.
