

Semantography Series No. 201

Continuation of the

C A T A L O G O F T H E S E M A N T O G R A P H Y S E R I E S

The Story of the Struggle for Semantography

Issues No. 201 - 300

Please note:

This catalog is compiled in August 1971 at a time when a number of issues are not completed. In the months to follow some issues will be completed and then when this catalog is issued at a later date the word "not" in "not completed" will be crossed out.

- 201 Catalog of the issues from 201 to 300 (this is the catalog)
- 202 In Search of a Logical God (completed)
 A complete book on the Idea, Philosophy and Ethics of Semantography.
- 203 Everyone's simple logic and semantics. (completed)
 Two complete books on the logic and semantics of Semantography.
- 204 Guide to my biographical issues. (not completed)
- 205 My first 23 years. (not completed)
- 206 Semantography, my life in China and afterwards. (not completed but see 207)
- 207 Semantography, mein Leben in China und nachher. (in German, completed)
- 208 Three months of hope. (completed)
 Wartime poetry in war-torn Shanghai.
- 209 A Diploma for Claire. (completed)
- 210 In Memory of Claire. (completed)
- 211 Unforgettable Claire. (completed)
- 212 Two Memorial cards for Claire. (completed)
- 213 My brother Henry. (completed)
- 214 Semantography and Jewish Philanthropists. (completed)
- 215 A new way to solve the Jewish question. (completed)
 Reprints from an article series by C.K. Bliss in a Shanghai weekly.
- 216 Ethics, Claire and Carl. (completed)
 A desperate manuscript written in desolation.
- 217 Ethics and Science, Claire and Carl. (completed)
 Another desperate manuscript written in desolation.
- 218 The Invention and Discovery that will revolutionise the 21st Century.
 This is the original manuscript which was then (completed) condensed into the final book
 "The Invention and Discovery that will change our Lives."

- 219 The Life Story of "One Writing for One World." (completed)
This manuscript was also used and condensed into the final book
"The Invention and Discovery that will change our Lives."
- 220 From the Cradle to the Concentration Camp. (completed)
- 221 Life and Indian thought by C.K. Bliss. (completed)
Reprint from the book published in honour of the President of India Dr. Radhakrishnan.
- 222 A Judge and Jury for better education. (completed)
An editorial by C.K. Bliss for the Indian philosophical journal
Darshana (Sanskrit for Wisdom).
- 223 A Critique of Blissymbols by Dr. Douglas Nixon Everingham M.P.
224 Synopsis of Blissymbols " " " " " (completed)
225 "A Symbol for Man" and "A Sign that all may read". (completed)
Reprints of two short articles from Sydney papers.
- 226 One logical semantic Writing for One World. (completed)
Article for a new Journal on Symbols.
- 227 An Article on Science and a Letter to the Science Writer of Life International. (not completed)
- 228 A symbol for the International Co-operation Year of the United Nations
1965 and the Intrigues about it. (not completed)
- 229 Bliss and the Columbia Broadcasting System of America. (not completed)
- 230 Professor Oliver L. Reiser's Introduction to "One Writing for One World".
(not completed)
- 231 The printed title page on Semantography for a brochure for the United Nations. (completed)
- 232 Circular of the United Nations about Symbols and the correspondence with UNO and Unesco. (not completed)
- 233 Bliss' letter to the United Nations Association of Australia. (completed)
- 234 Article in the New York Times on A Glyph for International Co-operation
Year of the United Nations. (not completed)
- 235 Manuscript of the First Chapters on a Book on Symbols for International Co-operation Year of the United Nations 1965. (not completed)
- 236 Bliss and the Humanists of Australia. (not completed)
- 237 Bliss and the International Committee for breaking the Language Barrier.
(not completed)
- 238 Three different designs for the dust jacket and promotion leaflet for the second edition of the book "Semantography". (completed)
- 239 A new Medium for Mankind. (completed)
A sample page for the new book on "The Invention and Discovery".
- 240 A Summary of the Author's Thoughts and Findings. (completed)
A reprint from the book "Semantography".
- 241 New Copyright Conditions published in the Second Edition of "Semantography" 1965. (completed)
These conditions have been altered. (See below 242)
- 242 New altered Copyright Conditions published in the book the "Invention and Discovery". (completed)

- 243 First four pages from the book "Semantography" 1965. (completed)
- 244 The Story of this Pioneering Work. (completed)
The second four pages from the book "Semantography".
- 245 Epilogue reprinted from "Semantography" 1965. (completed)
- 246 The story of "One Writing for One World" and "Bliss and the Beasts of Buchenwald". (completed)
Sample pages for the book "The Invention and Discovery".
- 247 The Safety Officer and Blissymbols for Industrial Safety Signs.(completed)
The text of a lecture to industrial safety officers. (see 257)
- 248 Ethics in Animals. (completed)
An article for the Journal of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.
- 249 Bliss and the Symbol Seekers of Icograda. (not completed)
A congress on symbols and a catastrophic correspondence.
- 250 Is it possible to design symbols which can be understood at first glance?
(completed)
A paper on a common fallacy prevalent with industrial designers.
- 251 The book mark for the second edition "Semantography" 1965. (completed)
- 252 Bliss is interviewed at the Radio University of Sydney.(not completed)
- 253 "Let's hear about Blissymbols" and "Let's play with Blissymbols".
Manuscript drafts for a children's primer. (not completed)
- 254 The Interpretation of the Arrow Symbol. (completed)
A paper about a seemingly self-explanatory symbol.
- 255 "The Miracle of the Beehive". (not completed)
An article and a futile correspondence.
- 256 Bliss and the United States Communication Satellite Corporation.
(not completed)
- 257 The Safety Officer and the Unsafety Officer. (not completed)
Manuscript of an article for the Safety Journal.
- 258 Using a Computer to teach English and other Languages in an utterly novel way. (completed)
An approach to the university researchers and firms working on the educational use of computers in schools.
- 259 The Department of Anthropology of the National University of Australia and Semantography. (not completed)
- 260 2 letters by the pioneer of new educational teaching methods Dr. J.A.Evans.
(not completed)
- 261 Bliss and the International Committee for travel signs and symbols of the International Chamber of Commerce in Paris. (not completed)
Conferences and correspondences and much ado about nothing.
- 262 Bliss and the two international air transport organisations IATA and CIAO.
(not completed)
Conferences and correspondence about symbols and much ado about nothing.

- 263 An Englishman revolts about the English language. (not completed)
An article from the Sydney Morning Herald.
- 264 How legends come about by lies. (not completed)
A letter by C.K. Bliss printed in Life International.
- 265 Ann Mary Burchard's lecture on Semantography before Californian teachers. (not completed)
- 266 Beware your bluster is showing. (not completed)
An article by Dr. D.N. Everingham about Bliss' Semantics.
- 267 Bliss's appearance on the Australian National Television Network. ?
(not completed)
- 268 A master thesis on communication and how the Blissymbols... are mutilated. (not completed)
- 269 Meet the master of picturgraphs. (not completed)
A frustrating correspondence.
- 270 Open letter to Margaret Mead. (not completed)
Articles, correspondence and controversy.
- 271 The American Hotel Association and international symbols for the traveller. (not completed)
- 272 Helping Elizabeth S. Helfman with her book "Signs and Symbols around the World". (not completed) See 275.
An interesting correspondence leading up to Helfman's chapter on Semantography.
- 273 Symbols for mountainerrs. (not completed)
- 274 Owe Bruno Fahlke, Master of Semantography (not completed)
Fahlke's letters and postcards and scientific statements in Semantography.
- 275 A cover story on Semantography. (completed)
A reprint of the chapter Semantography from Elizabeth S. Helfman's book "Signs and symbols around the World" (see 272) which cover story appeared in "Scholastic Newstime", "Scholastic Teacher" and other American educational magazines.
- 276 "Rubbernecking through Babel". (not completed)
An article in the American magazine "Industrial Design" and a maddening correspondence.
- 277 Leibnitz, a science historian and semantography. (completed)
An article about Leibnitz followed by an article about Semantography and a frustrating correspondence.
- 278 Drawings for a picture book on Language, Linguists and Semantography. (not completed)
- 279 A Letter to the Editors and Scientists who produced the Life Science book "The Cell". (completed)
- 280 Universal Pictorial Blissymbols for the International Traveller. (completed)
- 281 New Approach to American foundations and the Result. (not completed)
- 282 Maureen teaches Blissymbolics. (completed)
An amazing proof how small children grasp very quickly the Blissymbols and their inherent logic.

- 283 "I protest and I accuse!" (completed)
A protest paper for the Icoграда Congress on Signs and Symbols. (see 249)
- 284 "J'accuse et je protest!" (completed)
The same protest paper in French. (see 283)
- 285 "Ich protestiere und ich klage an!" (completed)
The same protest paper in German. (see 283)
- 286 Meet the President of an American College of Education.
(not completed)
- 287 Exposing Expo 67's Symbol Sickness. (not completed)
Letters to the organisers of the 1967 Exposition in Montreal and the 24 symbols shown in this Exposition.
- 288 Bliss and the Pentagon. (not completed)
A correspondence on the use of symbols for Nato, SEATO and other Organisations where military men of different countries and different languages have to co-operate with each other.
- 289 Charles Bliss and David Sarnoff President of the Radio Corporation of America. (not completed)
- 290 An informative paper on Bliss' two books "In Search of a Logical God" and "Everyone's simple Logic and Semantics". (completed)
- 291 Symbols by Alf Christensen of Norway. (completed)
- 292 Australian Language Pioneer. (completed)
Manuscript for a booklet on C.K. Bliss to be included in the series of Australian Living Pioneers.
- 293 Safo, the symbol system by Professor Dr. Andre Eckhardt of Germany. (not completed)
- 294 Picto the symbol system by Karel J.A. Janson of Holland. (not completed)
- 295 Panat, the symbol system by Bohdan Spolitakiewicz of Poland. (not completed)
- 296 Soichi Kato's article in the American magazine "Print". (completed)
A comparison of various symbols with the Blissymbols.
- 297 Bliss' approach to the Organisation of the Olympiad in Mexico 1968. (not completed)
- 298 Bliss' approach to the Organisation of the Olympiad in Munich 1972. (not completed)
- 299 The story of the bankruptcy of Bliss' wholesaler and a rescue action by American Libraries. (not completed)
- 300 Report and reflections on the issues number 201 to 299. (not completed)